LAW ENFORCEMENT REPRESENTING LAW ENFORCEMENT

The Indiana FOP Labor Council Inc, helps it's members navigate the complexities of contracts, grievances, wages, hours, working conditions, and other labor issues. Benefits of joining The Labor Council include:

- Full-service union representation for all members, regardless of department size
- Expert union contract negotiation and management
- Payment of all expenses, including transcripts, fact-finding, and arbitration
- Access to free legal counsel who has your best interests in mind
- Getting involved at the Labor Council's annual meeting
- Training

MEMBER BENEFITS

The benefit of having a knowledgeable advocate who can offer legal counsel and expert negotiating skills far outweighs the membership cost. Monthly dues are based on the yearly Certified Salary Report, the certified salary plus longevity calculated to one-half of the hourly wage. The Indiana FOP Labor Council Inc. maintains this affordable, high-value offering by focusing on services that directly benefit members.

EXAMPLES

- Representation
- Negotiation
- Research
- Legal Services
- Contract Administration
- Arbitration

Working alongside skilled negotiators, you will choose a bargaining team who represents your voice at the table. Your contract is tailored to the unique nature and needs of your workplace. When a tentative agreement is reached, you will be able to read and review the agreement prior to voting. The proposal will then be voted on by the membership for ratification.

Law enforcement personnel throughout the state want to play an active role in their future. They deserve nothing less than a dedicated, knowledgeable advocate who knows the profession inside and out. The Indiana FOP Labor Council is that organization.

MEMBER DRIVEN...

The FOP Labor Council is truly member driven. As “The Law Enforcement Union” our membership knows what is important to them. With county and municipal governments tightening their budgets, member input is vital to every facet of the FOP Labor Council’s operations. The Labor Council recognizes that supporting long term interests of law enforcement officers is crucial in recognizing our member’s ongoing needs.
